"In the past we haven't had good luck with the few contractors that we have worked with, and I admit that I had a somewhat negative opinion of contractors in general. I am happy to say that you have changed my mind on that score."

"The persons I worked most closely with (from Gridley) were more than simply polite and hardworking. They were friendly, responsive, competent and professional...Perhaps most important of all, I trusted the integrity of everyone involved in our project. I felt that they all went above and beyond what was merely acceptable and I admire them for it. I would recommend you and your company to anyone who asked."

— K. Morris

"We just wanted to write to you and let you know how pleased we are with our new Gridley kitchen. When we started this project we were a bit apprehensive, given that we had such a small space to work with and [wondered] how something would blend into our 50-year-old home. The results were unbelievable. We now have a modern, efficient, beautiful kitchen that fits perfectly."

— S. & J. Holcomb

"When people talk about service and customer satisfaction, Carol and I will certainly bring up the outstanding example you have given us. Thank you so much for all the work you have done—and done again—for us."

— S. & C. Chell

"We found the whole process very rewarding, and the outcome speaks for itself. The space is better than I imagined and is incredibly functional as well as beautiful. It is spectacular."

— A. Ciplickas
